

VALUABLE WORK CUTTER SERVICE

American Red Cross of the Sea—Annual Report Shows Wide Range of Activities

NEED MORE MONEY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 10.—The United States Revenue Cutter service—the Red Cross of the Sea—broke all its previous records during the fiscal year 1912. Thousands of human lives and hundreds of tonnage of property were saved from the perils of storm-swept seas by the little cutters which guard the coast line of the United States in an unbroken line from Maine to Texas and from Alaska to California, nervously alert for the "E. D. S."

The annual report of Captain E. P. Herbold, commandant of the service, made public today, is a recitation of thrilling adventures of this army of the federal government, older than the American navy. A total of 269 distressed vessels were assisted during the year and their crews 2,212 souls rescued from danger which in many cases seemed impending death. One hundred and six persons were actually saved from drowning.

Revenue Cutters on the Pacific coast, penetrating the frigid waters of Alaska, brought back tales of suffering among the natives of the Alaskan Islands, in the grasp of poverty and disease-croaking conditions. It is declared, demanding the attention and action of the Federal government.

Vessels, cargoes and skeletons saved by the Revenue Cutter Service during the year were valued at $10,711,748. Forty-five derelicts and other dangerous obstructions to navigation were removed or destroyed.

"For every dollar the government invested in the maintenance of the Revenue Cutter Service," says Capt. Herbold, "there has been a return of $4.26 in the form of property saved from the perils of the sea."

The fiscal year 1912, was probably one of the most trying periods to shipping of any year during the past quarter of a century. Frequent crises swept the Atlantic and Gulf coasts, while during the winter months, the unusually low temperatures caused great danger by shipping and actual suffering to the crews on account of the ice conditions, even as far south as Chesapeake bay. These conditions resulted in almost constant calls for the assistance of revenue cutters. None were unheeded. In consequence the beneficial work of the service in all its activities, during the past fiscal year, has exceeded that of previous years.

The United States exported about 178,000,000 gallons of naphtha last year.

PHOENIX, Feb. 10.—(Special)—

"God bless Arizona and may He bless about you as does the mountains bover about your capital city." With these words, vice president-elect Marshall concluded an address of about an hour before a joint session of the houses of the legislature. His remarks were non-political and he urged recognition for men who had honest convictions on problems of government. He was accompanied by Mrs. Marshall.

Prior to convening, a reception of the members of the legislature was held in the governor's office and after adjournment members of both houses and state officials were photographed in front of the capitol.

At the morning session there was introduced in the senate, by Harrison, a bill increasing from 5 to 10 cents the fee for inspection of live stock and by Senator Hughes a bill creating a state board of pardons and paroles to consist of the governor and three citizens, one of whom shall be a woman.

Dumplings

For Soups, Stews and Fricassee Chicken

Left overs of roast lamb, veal or beef, the cheaper cuts of fresh meats, and fowl too old for roasting, make delicious and nourishing stews. K C Dumplings make them doubly attractive and the whole dish is most economical—an object to most families while meats are so high and must be made to go as far as possible.

K C Dumplings

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the well known baking expert.

2 cups flour; 1 level teaspoonful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1 cup shortening, milk or cream.

Sift together three times, the flour, baking powder and salt, into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough less stiff than for biscuits.

Allow the stew to boil down so that the liquid does not cover the meat or chicken. Add half a cup of cold water to stop its boiling and drop the dough in large spoonfuls on top of the meat or chicken. Cover and let boil again for 15 minutes.

Made with K C Baking Powder and steamed in this way, dumplings are as light as biscuits and are delicious with thickened gravy.

This recipe is adapted from one for Chicken Pot Pie in "The Cook's Book" by Janet McKenzie Hill, editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. DIAZ HOLDS ARSENAL

The body of Gen. Reyes, killed in yesterday's fighting, is in the possession of friends, who have as yet made no arrangements for further disposal. It will probably be buried with that of his son, who took his life upon learning of his father's death.

AT EL PASO

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 10.—An armistice practically exists between the federal and rebel forces in northern Mexico, pending the settlement of the Mexico City situation.

This was admitted today by rebel agents here and the federal commanders at Chihuahua.

Assurances that American lives and property would be protected in the district under his charge came today from Gen. Antonio Rabago, chief of the northern zone.

The message was transmitted to Washington by way of Consul Thomas Edwards. Rabago recommends that order be kept by all troops in the zone.

Mamuel Lujan, former rebel ambassador to Washington, today telegraphed Felix Diaz recognition of the northern revolutionists. He asked that Orozco, whose whereabouts remain in doubt, be recognized as commander in chief, with Inez Salazar as acting commander.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS

What may be the first step in intervention, was taken yesterday, when a message from Col. Guirayola, at Warren, was received ordering all the troops of the Ninth Cavalry to report in Douglas at once. The troops on actual border duty will remain for the present at their posts to guard against invasion or overt acts, but these may also be ordered to Douglas before the day is over.

The order to concentrate at Douglas was received by Capt. George P. White, stationed in Warren, at two o'clock yesterday afternoon. From Fort Stockton and other points, troops are now on their way to Douglas. It is reported that the Fifth Cavalry, now at Ft. Huachuca will be ordered to Douglas today.

Practically everything pertaining to the camp at Warren was taken last night, but a guard of twelve privates, four non commissioned officers and Lieutenant Herwig were left behind to guard 500,000 rounds of ammunition and several hundred rifles which are in the care of the Ninth Cavalry, going to the difficult task of guarding the border. When they tried to send these munitions to American citizens in Mexico some time ago.

Officers of the 9th were about to believe yesterday that they were going into Mexico. This was due to the suddenness of the orders and the fact that they were to some extent prepared for field service, carrying all the ammunition possible. No food supplies were carried as these are to be furnished the soldiers in Douglas. There have been but three troops in Douglas at the present time. Beyond the marching orders received at Warren yesterday, officers of the 9th had no official information. Col. Guirayola has, he has not made it public. Numerous calls were made on the Review during the afternoon and even by officers and wanted to know if it had further telegraphic advice. All it could give them was the wired advice of reports in Washington and New York of preparations for intervention.

NACAZARI ELECTION DECLARED ILLEGAL

New Officials Not Allowed to Assume Control and Big Celebration Ends

Because the federal government accuses the election officers of Nacozari of having fraudulently conducted the recent municipal election, the government of the town was not formally turned over on "constitution day," Feb. 5, to the new officials elected, and the celebration which was planned to take place was stopped by the federal soldiers who are stationed in the town according to report which reached Douglas yesterday.

Everything was in readiness in the morning for a big celebration and about 400 school children assembled at the schoolhouse and marched to the plaza in front of the statue of Jesus Garcia, where an orchestra was located and playing patriotic airs. A large number of the citizens of the town had also turned out, and most of the residents of Pinaros were among them to witness the newly elected president, Ramon Gil Samanaga, take the reins of government.

But the order for the turning over of affairs to him which were to come from Campas, did not arrive as was expected, and after waiting for some time the people got uneasy and demanded to know the cause of the delay. By this time the federal garrison came out and took matters in hand, dispersed the crowd and stated that a message from Acting Governor F. Dilla was received stating that the government could not be turned over because the election was conducted fraudulently.

All Festivities Stopped. All the affairs connected with the celebration were ordered stopped, including the fancy dress ball which was scheduled to take place in the evening.

Many of the Mexicans of Douglas as well as a large number of Agua Prieta went to Nacozari to participate in the celebration and returned home greatly disappointed.
